

MONTHLY SCHOOL BULLETIN – FEBRUARY 2023

Regional School Liaison Officer

“CPD dates for March are now available for schools to book on to. This is a great way for schools to learn more about Service children’s experiences and could be a great starting point for thinking about how your school can celebrate Month of the Military Child in April. It would be great to see some schools working towards their Armed Forces Friendly Schools bronze award in time for MotMC in April along with Armed Forces Day in June. Newport will be the hosting the National Armed Forces Day celebration this year on 24th June. Being able to acknowledge and celebrate schools who actively celebrate and support Service children is fantastic. Your local authority may have been in touch regarding Service children data, so please provide these as soon as you can. For any advice or support, please get in touch.”

Participation Lead Officer

“Since October 62 primary school age children have now completed the Little Trooper’s 7-week Well-being course. We have received some wonderful feedback from all those involved. Great work from Mount Street Infant School, St Athan Primary School and Ysgol Pen Y Bryn. Thank you all and I look forward to seeing your Little Trooper Clubs continuing to flourish and make a difference. Also, an extra BIG bravo to Lilly, Evelyn, Conall and Emelia from St Athan Primary Little Troopers Club and Cari and Lyla from Llantwit Major High School Forces Life Club, we enjoyed hearing from you at your school’s awards ceremony. You are excellent ambassadors for Service children/young people across Wales.” Jo, Joanna.wolfe@wlga.gov.uk
