St Julian's

REMEMBRANCE DAY

11 NOVEMBER

Together, we remember.

St Julian's stands with Service students, their families and the military community.

We remember their service and sacrifice.

What does Remembrance mean to you?

To me Remembrance means taking the time to reflect, respect and honour the very brave men and women who served and still serve our Country and the sacrifices made to protect our way of life.

As a Service child growing up in Germany I always remember attending the Remembrance Day Parade or Service and listening to The Last Post with my family. This then would traditionally be followed by a lovely Roast Dinner in the Mess.

When I wear my Poppy I also think of my Dad and Brother, who have served and are still serving, and feel very privileged to be part of a Military family and Community.

Mrs Kelly Griffiths - St Julian's School

What does Remembrance mean to you?

To me, Remembrance means remembering the people who died in conflicts like WW1, WW2 and current ongoing conflicts around the world. I am proud of my Dad for being in the Royal Navy and myself for being in the sea cadets.

Remembrance to me is personal, knowing what my Dad does and that he would hae to go to war so I think it is important to recognise the people who lost their lives to the war so we can honour them and make sure it neer happens again.

Jack and Harry - St Julian's School

What does Remembrance mean to you?

To me Remembrance day is celebrating the lives of the people who served for our Country and still do.
It is important to me because my Dad served in the Welsh Guards for 23 years.

Sophia - St Julian's School

What does Remembrance mean to you?

Remembrance means to me the people who lost their lives and will not be forgot and we thank them for saving our Country at the cost of their lives. I am proud of my dad who fought in the war to help our Country. He is a hero like the rest.

I am proud of my Dad who fought in the war and I love him and the people who fought in the war. The best father in the world!!!

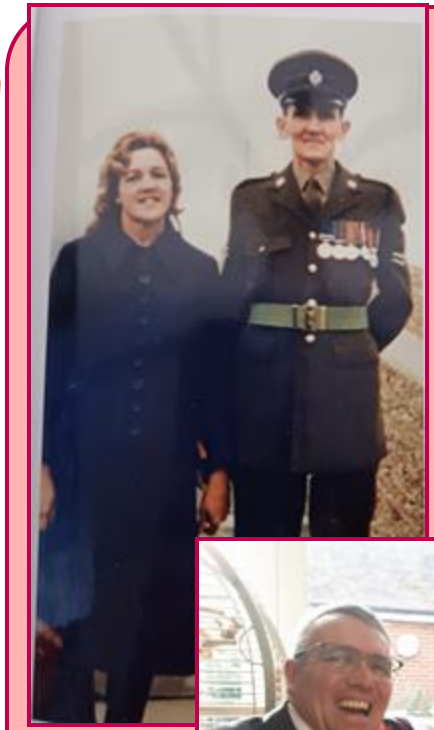

Cole and Summer-Rose St Julian's School

What does Remembrance mean to you?

Remembrance day is important to me to remember the sacrifice of the brave men, women and animals who fought for our freedom and our right. Furthermore, it is an important opportunity to remember how important it is that we learn from our past mistakes.

For me personally, it is an important day to remember my grandad, who bravely served for Canada and Britain in World War II and went on to serve in the Malaysian and Korean wars.

Tiff - St Julian's School

What does Remembrance mean to you?

To me , Remembrance is a day to remember and pay respect t
the brave individuals who lost their lives during the war. I am so incredibly proud to have my father and grandfather serve their tim in the Army protecting our Country.

Remembrance is a day to remember those who fought for this Country with or without the cost of their life. I'm very proud to have a Dad and Grandad that served in the army despite the risks.

The first is of me in West Germany in 1986, shortly before my first tour of Northern Ireland.

The second is of my dear old Dad, George Thomas Dibble (on the back of the motorbike), taken in North Africa in 1942. He also served in Italy from 1943 until the end of the war.

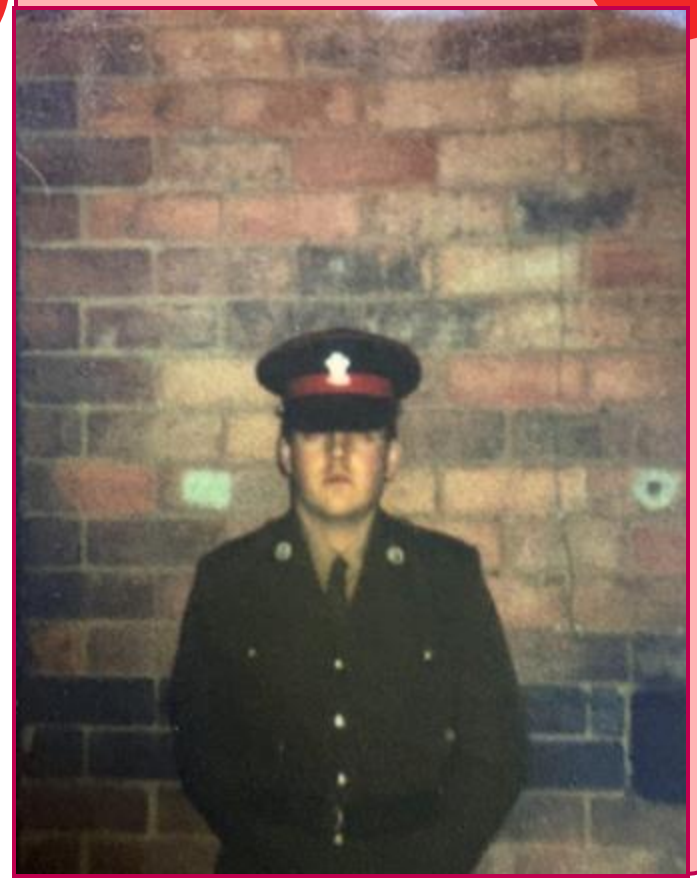

Thankfully, he made it home. Otherwise, Tom, Lily and I wouldn't be here today!

Lily / Tom and Dad - St Julian's School

What does Remembrance mean to you?

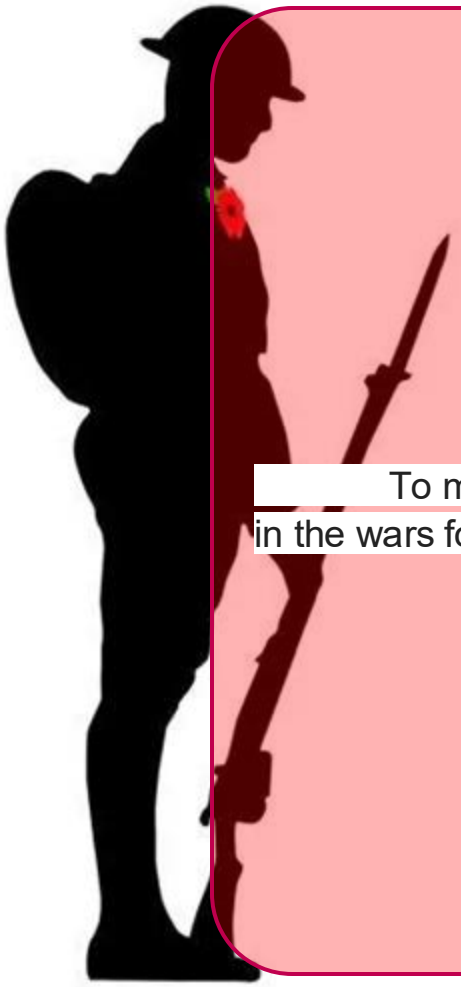

To me Remembrance is a symbol of respect and honour. To show pride in what we are remembering and also to honour the families we have lost also to honour the people who were in the war.

Ella and Jack - St Julian's School

What does Remembrance mean to you?

To me remembrance means honouring the dead who fought in the wars for us.

Joey - St Julian's School

What does Remembrance mean to you?

Honouring the people who survived and fought for our Country during the wars. Like my brother Josh who is in the army currently serving. For me it is quite nerve wracking knowing that my brother is somewhere in the world fighting for our Country and the Country he is in.

Lili - St Julian's School

What does Remembrance mean to you?

Remembrance means remembering everyone who fought in the war and to remember all the people who lost their family members and that should be grateful that we are not in war anymore.
My Brother is in the Navy and I am proud of him.

Caroline - St Julian's School

What does Remembrance mean to you?

To me Remembrance day is all about the lives that were sacrifice in wars and that we should always participate in the moment of silence and show respect to the lives that were given and we should always remember them,
My connection to the Military is my Mum was a member of the RAF and my Dad was in the Army and was a Welsh Guard and I am very proud of them for risking their lives in wars, and Im grateful they helped protect the UK in the Afganistan war.

Freddie - St Julian's School

What does Remembrance mean to you?

REMEMBRANCE DAY
REMEMBRANCE DAY
Lest We Forget
LEST WE FORGET

What does Remembrance mean to you?

REMEMBRANCE DAY
Lest We Forget
LEST WE FORGET

LEST WE FORGET

HEROES

MADE IN CHINA

Lest We Forget

